

Celebrating the history of the Derbyshire miners Harvey and Haslam

Chesterfield Library
Saturday 27th June at 10.30

Talks about Harvey, Haslam, Derbyshire Mining History and the NUM

Harry Barnes, former NE Derbyshire MP and Cllr John Burrows, Leader of Chesterfield Borough Council

Round the table discussion

More information overleaf and from Chesterfield Library 01629 533400

www.derbyshire.gov.uk/insert service name

Celebrating the history of the Derbyshire miners

Chesterfield Library throughout June

Exhibition: The History of Derbyshire miners

Friday 26 June outside former Miners' Offices Saltergate 7pm

- Short ceremony to mark the centenary of the statues of James Haslam and William Edward Harvey

Founder members and officials of the Derbyshire Miners' Association (DMA) who became MPs

The Labour Club will be open for refreshments from 6pm

Saturday 27 June in Chesterfield Library Theatre 11am

- Talk about Harvey, Haslam and the role they played in the history of the Derbyshire miners by Harry Barnes

Former MP for NE Derbyshire and tutor on Derbyshire Miners' day-release course

- Talk about the NUM during the last period of mining in Derbyshire by Cllr John Burrows

Leader of Chesterfield Borough Council, and former Derbyshire NUM Official

- From 1.15 there will be a round-table discussion on history of Derbyshire miners

Chair: John Halstead, tutor on former Derbyshire Miners' Day-release course

Questions and contributions to discussion welcome

Tea/coffee/biscuits served from 10.30

Buffet lunch available at £8 - please buy your lunch ticket in advance at Chesterfield Library

Attendance at events is free

