

Ruskin College, Oxford (www.ruskin.ac.uk)

Raymond Williams Foundation (RWF) Day linked to the RW Society Annual Lecture.

Saturday 21 November 2015

Programme

09.30 on arrival and registration

10.00 RWF Small seminar discussion circles based on RW Keywords
Dramatic; Revolution; Violence, and Terrorist; Hope and Aspiration.

11.00 Tea/Coffee & biscuits, pay as appropriate

11.30. RWF KW discussions as above.

13.00 Ruskin Café/provision of sandwiches or whatever – pay as appropriate...

14.00 (RWS AGM for members)

15.00 RWSociety Annual Lecture
Social Perspectives in Hard Times: Re-reading Williams' Modern Tragedy
Susan Watkins Editor, New Left Review

17.00 There may be refreshments available... pay as appropriate

17.15 RWF small seminar discussion/s on the themes of the Lecture.

19.00 End of Day... a meal somewhere... heading home/self organised overnight stay in Oxford...

Fee: Minimal, (no more than £5pp for all the sessions and most maybe free-of-charge) pay as you go...

Overnight accommodation may be available at Ruskin College, en suite bedroom, B&B for only £34.00pp (subsidized by RWF for those attending one or more of the above discussion sessions).
To book B&B e-mail as below, stating requirements and pay on the Saturday.

Useful to know how many intend to come for any part of the day... e-mail
derektatton@btinternet.com

.....
www.raymondwilliamsfoundation.org.uk