There will be three short presentations (see below) and then as much discussion as you want.

Presenters:

Dr Martin Allen - "Running the economy like a household" ! How do we challenge Neo-liberal thinking on budgets, borrowing and 'economic competence'? Martin has been teaching young people economics for many years.

Simon Mohun, formerly Prof of Economics at Queen Mary Uni London (who will talk about the 'macro' side)

Sue Himmelweit, formerly Prof of Economics at the Open University, who will talk about the gendered impact of the proposed policies.
